

ANNOUNCEMENT OF VACANCY
Superintendent of Schools
Platte County School District #1

Platte County School District #1, Wheatland, Wyoming, is accepting applications for a superintendent of schools. The successful candidate should demonstrate successful teaching, management, administrative and instructional leadership skills and possess high moral character to inspire and lead a school district that expects and supports a comprehensive educational program for its students. Salary will be not less than $120,000 and include a comprehensive benefits package.

Platte County School District No. 1 encompasses three communities in Southeastern Wyoming; Wheatland, Chugwater, and Glendo. The district offices are located in Wheatland which is the county seat of Platte County. Wheatland is the largest community of the three with a population of approximately 3,600 people. The communities are set amid farms and ranches that are irrigated by the largest privately-owned irrigation system in the country. The Laramie River Station power plant is located in the district and represents one of the largest consumer-owned region joint power supply programs in the United States. Recreational opportunities abound and include excellent fishing and water sports. Sightseeing, rock hunting, snowmobiling, hiking and camping can be found a short drive away in the Medicine Bow National Forest and the Laramie Peak area. Situated on North/South Interstate 25, the communities have easy access to Cheyenne, Casper and Denver, Colorado.

Platte County School District #1 serves approximately 1,014 students in 11 schools that offer a comprehensive educational program for students in grades kindergarten through 12 and which serve as the center of their communities. The district’s mission is to ensure that each student is actively engaged in learning, connected to the school and broader community, and prepared for an ever-changing world. The district is fully accredited by the Wyoming Department of Education and AdvancED.
