

ANNOUNCEMENT OF VACANCY
Superintendent of Schools
Big Horn County School District #3

Big Horn County School District #3, Greybull, Wyoming, is accepting applications for a superintendent of schools. The successful candidate should demonstrate successful teaching, management, administrative and instructional leadership skills and possess high moral character to inspire and lead a school district that expects and supports a comprehensive educational program for its students. Salary will be not less than $115,000 and include a comprehensive benefits package.

Greybull is a community of nearly 2,000 residents that enjoy an outstanding quality of life. The town is a safe, friendly, and affordable place to live and offers the joys of life in a small town. The area surrounding the community is rich in variety, history and contemporary life. Greybull is surrounded by mountains on three sides: the spectacular Absaroka and Beartooth ranges to the west, the rugged Pryor Mountains to the north, and the beautiful and “user friendly” Big Horns to the east. Opportunities for hunting, fishing, boating, snowmobiling, cross-country and downhill skiing and other recreational endeavors are abundant. Farming and ranching, mining, railroad, construction, tourism, and oil and gas exploration are major area employers. Northwest Community College, a 2-year accredited community college is within a 45-minute commute. Cody (population 9,776) and Worland (population 5,383), are within an hour’s drive. Billings, Montana and the beautifully Yellowstone National Park are both within 120 miles.

Big Horn County School District #3 is one of four school districts in Big Horn County. The district serves approximately 475 students in three schools that offer a comprehensive educational program for students in grades kindergarten through 12 and which serve as the center of their communities. The district’s mission is to prepare all students to be college and career ready through superior teaching of a rigorous curriculum. The district is fully accredited by the Wyoming Department of Education.
