

The logo features a stylized mountain range with three peaks. The central peak is the tallest and is colored red. The two flanking peaks are shorter and colored dark blue. The mountains are composed of geometric shapes, primarily triangles and quadrilaterals, creating a textured, blocky appearance.

Survey on Civics Education

The Wyoming Department of Education (WDE) invites K-12 social studies teachers and school district administrators to participate in an online survey regarding how civics education is taught in Wyoming schools. The survey will inquire about the types of civics-related activities currently provided for K-12 students, and about classroom time devoted to civics, whether as stand-alone lessons and courses or integrated with other content areas. Access the survey here and complete it by May 31, 2019

Wyoming Developmental Disabilities Conference

The Wyoming Developmental Disabilities Conference (WDDC) is the largest developmental disability conference in the state of Wyoming and covers a variety of topics related to disabilities such as advocacy, employment, education, best practices and other critical issues. Participants include self-advocates/people with disabilities, family members, providers and professionals. The conference brings together a wide range of people and is a great opportunity to network, learn new things, make friends and reconnect. Please click here for more information.
